

Presidential Alert

March 12, 2018

PATS HALL OF FAME CLASS OF 2018

The Pennsylvania Athletic Trainers Society is proud to announce the 2018 Hall of Fame Class. The following illustrious Athletic Trainers will be inducted in the PATS Hall of Fame on June 8th during the Honors and Awards Banquet at the annual meeting.

EDWIN A. "SANDY" BUSH

Sandy is a Lock Haven University graduate and has been the Head Athletic Trainer and Program Director at Messiah College for more than 30 years. Sandy has served PATS as a Regional Representative, Board Member, Committee member and Chair. He served a full term on the Athletic Training Advisory Committee to the State Board of Physical Therapy and is currently a member of the History and Archives Committee.

TERESA ZEPKA, PA-C, AT-RET

Teresa is currently a Physician Assistant with the Conemaugh Physician Group in Johnstown, PA. Before becoming a PA, she worked as an Athletic Trainer at Millersville University, California University, and UPMC in Pittsburgh. One of Teresa's greatest Athletic Training achievements pertains to her work with the PATS Public Relations Committee. Under her leadership as PR chair, Teresa earned many National honors from the NATA for her work. She has also served PATS on the Governmental Affairs Committee and on the Athletic Training Advisory Committee to the State Board of Physical Therapy.

LINDA FABRIZIO MAZZOLI, MS, LAT, PTA, PES

Linda is the Program Director of the Rothman Institute and Jefferson Concussion Program. She is also the Executive Director of the Pennsylvania Athletic Trainers Society. Linda has served PATS in various roles. She has served on several committees and as a Regional Representative on the Executive Board. Linda is nationally recognized by the National Athletic Trainers Association and has worked on several task forces and national committees.

The Hall of Fame represents the highest honor that is bestowed on a member of PATS. Please take a moment if you can to congratulate these 3 outstanding Athletic Trainers. Also, plan on attending the Annual PATS Symposium and Meeting June 7-9 at the Holiday Inn in Grantville, PA. The induction ceremony will take place during the Honors and Awards Banquet and registration is open at www.gopats.org

GO 4 ELLIS

— ON DEMAND ATs —

The password for the PATS members only section is:

concussion